Concept of the exhibition:	1746, Herrnhag in Hesse, Europe: A dark-skinned man, son of a white European and an African princess, born in Accra, Africa, marries a dark-skinned woman from the Caribbean, America. What hardly causes astonishment today was completely unusual in the middle of the 18th century, indeed hardly conceivable or imaginable. Christian (1715-1769) and Rebecca Protten (1719-1778) crossed borders - both geographically and socially.
Live-Stream Vernissage:	Wednesday, 27th March 2023, 6 pm Liechtenstein NationalMuseum We cordially invite you to the opening per Live-Stream of our special exhibition «UNTO THE END OF THE WORLD. The Prottens – A Global Family in the 18th Century». Alexander Muxel Interim Managing Director of the Liechtenstein NationalMuseum welcomes you. Roman Jenal, Member of the Board of the Foundation of the Liechtenstein speaks the welcome remarks. Dr. Matthias Donath and Dr. Lars-Arne Dannenberg, co-curators of the exhibition introduce the topic.
