Concept of the exhibition:	The egg seems to be without a beginning or an end. Its shell perfectly encloses what is hidden inside. Only when the time is ready does the shell open to reveal the interior. The collection of the Liechtenstein NationalMuseum contains numerous artistically decorated (Easter)eggs that are dedicated to the open & close theme. This year's Easter egg Presentation features, for example, 40 eggs from chickens and geese, eggs made of silver, porcelain and glass, paper, wood or tin, which can be opened in different ways. Not always, but often the interior has a very special meaning – whether playful, useful, decorative or unexpected
